FUTURE EVENTS

Booking details will be in a later newsletter

Emma Business Forum

In May we held our first Entrepreneurs' Forum at Shoreditch's 'Book Club' venue, near to London's 'Silicon Roundabout'. An expert panel including Jack Lang (Judge Business School, Raspberry Pi), and chaired by author and journalist Rachel Bridge were put through their paces by an enthusiastic audience of more than 60 Members. From the online survey that we ran after the event it was clear that not only did Members want to have more of this type of event but that there was a lot of support for the setting-up of an Emmanuel Business Forum.

From the feedback so far, the Forum might comprise:

- a LinkedIn group to share basic contact details, skills and information about business and entrepreneurial activities; and
- events that provide opportunities for networking and in-depth discussion, targeting specific business sectors, strategies and issues.

Please help us to establish the Business Forum by emailing the Emmanuel Society Office, emmanuel- your contact information and details about your key areas of interest so that we can plan to meet demand. Those who attended the Secrets of Entrepreneurship event in May will receive an email inviting them to participate. Please also let us know if you would be willing to lead discussions on specific issues. Topics requested so far include start-up strategies, recruiting, growing/scaling a business and growing business abroad. Can anyone offer a seminar room in their London office as a venue for Forum meetings?

We look forward to hearing from you and getting the Emma Business Forum off the ground.

CAREERS

Careers Database

www.emma.cam.ac.uk/careers

The Emmanuel Careers Database needs you!

The careers database on the Emmanuel website offers the chance for both current and former students to get in touch for careers advice and networking opportunities.

More than 450 people working in areas from academia and accountancy right through to writers and vets have already added their details.

Whenever you matriculated, if you could spare a few minutes to add your details, or update an existing entry, just go to:

www.emma.cam.ac.uk/careers.

Careers Workshop

More than 60 students attended a careers workshop on 29 October, organised by the Emmanuel Society, ECSU and the MCR.

Nine Members with graduate recruitment experience in sectors from the Civil Service to financial services, consultancy to teaching and law to journalism, returned to give top tips on the job hunting process. After brief introductions the students then got the chance to ask individual questions about applications and interviews.

There was a real buzz of enthusiasm in the room (not just from the wine), with many people bringing along CVs for review and advice. This is the third year the workshop has run, and it proved the most successful yet, with many thanks to all who gave their time, effort and energy to make it happen.

The Emmanuel Society would value your help at the annual careers workshop organised with ECSU and the MCR, focused on CV writing, filling in application forms and interview skills.
