CAREERS

Careers Evening Report – Wednesday 4 November 2015

More than 50 students attended this year's job-hunting workshop, organised by the Emmanuel Society, ECSU and the MCR.

Nine Members and volunteers returned to College to share the benefits of their experience in reviewing CVs and conducting interviews.

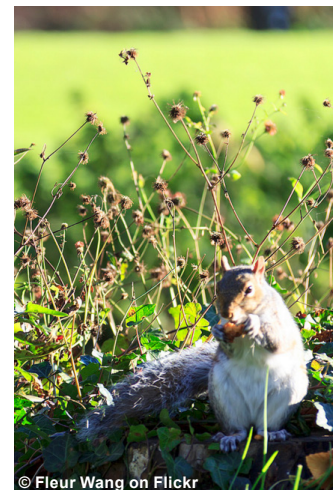

Talks touched on topics from mistakes to avoid on CVs, coping with competency interviews and assessment days, to getting the most out of LinkedIn and options beyond graduate recruitment schemes.

Many students took the chance to bring along a copy of their CV for review, and Emma Chilvers (1985) and Charlotte Mitchell (2000) returned on 19 November to provide further individual CV review sessions.

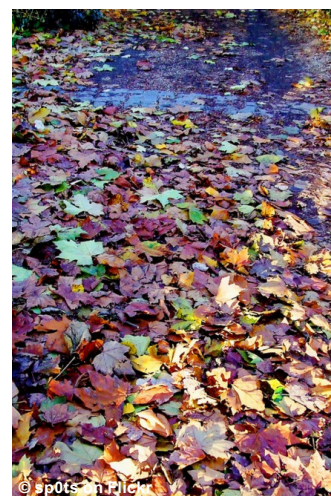

Everyone involved remains extremely grateful to all the Members who take the time and trouble to come back to College and help students with their job applications.
