

Emmanuel College

Job Description for – Gate Porter (Full-time)

LINE MANAGER – Head Porter

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The full-time post of Gate Porter is extremely diverse requiring a professional and courteous manner at all times, along with tact, flexibility and a high degree of sensibility.

The primary role of the Gate Porter is the security of the College and the health and welfare of all members and guests of the College. The post requires self-reliance and resourcefulness on the part of the post holder when carrying out the duties outlined below. The Porter's Lodge is the first point of contact for visitors to the College, therefore Porters perform a very important front of house role. The Porter's Lodge is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week meaning the shift pattern for this full-time post is varied and could be during the day, evening or night, working an average of 40 hours per week.

The College is a busy and friendly environment located in central Cambridge, and we welcome applications from all individuals, regardless of their background.

SKILLS REQUIRED

Excellent customer service and communication skills, good IT skills, attention to detail along with the ability to deal effectively with a wide range of people and a variety of tasks in a helpful and flexible manner; an inquisitive, outgoing, and lively personality with a mature approach to the duties allocated.

PRINCIPAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Using own initiative but under the direction of the Head Porter or Deputy Head Porter, to ensure timely completion of work, in accordance with instructions as may from time to time be issued by the College, in connection with a variety of duties in the following areas:

1. Competently deal with a variety of Fire Procedures, including the activation and resetting of the various fire systems in the College, and the related action necessary when an incident occurs.
2. Respond to matters of security both within the main College site and the College properties away from the main site.
3. Recording, issue, and subsequent return of keys/computer generated key cards from all authorised persons in accordance with current procedures.

4. Monitor College CCTV system.
5. Take the necessary action to prevent or contain any incident that could cause damage, loss or a risk to safety within the college.
6. General reception duties: these duties are wide ranging and include answering of general enquiries, direction of visitors, answering and dealing with incoming telephone calls and e-mails and the sale of postcards and other sundry items.
7. Sorting or redirecting to the relevant party of all letters and parcels received at the Porters Lodge from a variety of sources. Franking and recording mail leaving the College and transporting the outgoing mail to the local post office.
8. Be aware of and ensure that the various members of the College adhere to the College Rules, reporting any breach of College Rules to the Head Porter
9. Hold a current, valid First Aid certificate and be familiar with administering First Aid when required. (Training will be given where necessary). Mental Health First Aid training will be given.
10. To assist as required at official College functions and events, including those run by outside organisations where necessary.
11. The observance of recognised safety procedures and various College Policies including, but not limited to, the College Health & Safety policy, the Equal Opportunities Policy, the Computer Acceptable Use Policy and the College General Data Protection Regulations.
12. Any other duties and responsibilities consistent with the role of Porter as may be reasonably requested from time to time.

The above list of duties is not intended to be exhaustive since the role of Porter is constantly evolving - emphasising the need for the Porter to react to various circumstances as they arise.

THE REWARDS

The College Terms and Conditions of Employment provide for:

- A final salary contributory pension scheme, including life insurance benefit,
- 25 days annual holiday, in addition to the 8 statutory and public holidays in a full holiday year
- A meal is available at lunch time at College expense
- A scheme for payment whilst staff are incapacitated due to ill health is operated
- Travel to work loan scheme is available
