Emmanuel College
Mead Fellowship in Economics

Further Particulars

The Governing Body of Emmanuel College invites applications for the Mead Fellowship in Economics, tenable for 5 years from 1 October 2022.

This is a Research Fellowship under College Statutes with the condition that the Fellow will also teach for the College. Candidates may be working in any area of Economics within the scope of the teaching and research undertaken by the Cambridge University Faculty of Economics. Applicants will normally be expected to have completed a PhD (or be nearing completion) and to have at most 10 years of post-graduate research and teaching since completing their first degree.

In addition to pursuing his or her personal research, the Fellow will be required to teach six hours per week for Emmanuel College during Full Term, and participate in the annual selection of undergraduates at Emmanuel to read for the Economics Tripos.

The stipend for the Mead Fellow will be £34,011 (this is reduced to £26,043 in the case of a resident Fellow). The Mead Fellow will be provided with an office in Emmanuel (or a single resident Fellow’s set in the case of a resident Fellow), appropriate computing equipment, an annual research allowance of up to £1,500, and an allowance of £280 per year for the purchase of academic books. Lunch and dinner in Hall are provided free of charge.

Applications Application forms may be downloaded from the College website at www.emma.cam.ac.uk/vacancies. Candidates should email their completed application form along with a CV and covering letter to the Bursar (bursar@emma.cam.ac.uk) so as to reach him by 5.00 pm on Friday 29 April 2022. Candidates should arrange for two people familiar with their research to send references to the Bursar so as to reach him by 5.00 pm on Friday 29 April 2022. It is the candidate’s responsibility to ensure that these references are sent on time. Referees may send their reports by email to bursar@emma.cam.ac.uk.

Candidates will be informed shortly after 4 May 2022 whether or not they have been short-listed. Interviews for the Fellowship are likely to take place in the week beginning 16 May 2022.
