There will be a memorial service for Professor James Holt, former Fellow and Honorary Fellow and Master of Fitzwilliam College, on Saturday 25 October at 3.30pm in Great St Mary's in Cambridge. All are welcome.

Tour de France

Hundreds of people gathered outside the College to watch the Tour de France pass on Monday 7 July. Photos from that day can be viewed online at www.emma.cam.ac.uk/about/gallery/tdf2014/

University's Alumni Travel Programme – Hereford Three Choirs Festival with John Bryden (1965)

Our Member John Bryden (1965) will be taking a party to the Three Choirs Festival in Hereford in 2015. The Festival will celebrate its 300th anniversary next year, making it the world's oldest continuously running music festival. Large-scale choral and orchestral concerts take place each evening in Hereford Cathedral, featuring the Three Choirs Festival Chorus and the Philharmonia Orchestra, while daytime concerts and chamber music recitals boast premier guest soloists and ensembles from around the world. A celebratory opening service and Sunday festival Eucharist ensures that liturgical music remains at the heart of the festival as it has been for 300 years, while its uniquely diverse artistic programme establishes it as a must-visit for lovers of choral music.

The festival is held from 29 July to 2 August 2015 and you can book tickets on John's tour with ACE Cultural Tours at aceculturaltours.co.uk.

College Chefs

The College chefs did well again at the Salon Culinaire in London: Maciej Kaminski won gold best in class in Dessert Plates, Matthew Carter won silver best in class in Three Course Menu, Dan Abbs won silver in Dessert Plates, Tony Maio won in the Master Chefs of Great Britain Fish Course and Nathan Aldous won silver in Petit Fours.

Chapel Choir CD

The Chapel Choir have released a CD: Vox Dicentis: Choral Music by E W Naylor is available for £10 + £2.50 p&p. Cheques should be made payable to Emmanuel College Cambridge and sent to Chapel Choir CD, Emmanuel College, Cambridge CB2 3AP.

Edward Woodall Naylor (1867–1934) was Organist of Emmanuel from 1898 until his death. Apart from his well-known anthem Vox Dicentis: Clama and a few canticle settings, very little of his music is known or in the repertoire of choirs today. This is the first recording entirely devoted to his choral works, and contains seven first recordings. It is directed by Richard Latham (1997).
