Welcome to the Emmanuel College Newsletter, which brings you the latest news and information from all areas of College life.

NEWS

Lord St John of Fawsley

There is sad news from Emmanuel: Lord St John of Fawsley, Master 1991–96, died on Friday 2 March. A memorial requiem for him was held in the College Chapel on Saturday 28 April 2012.

Lord Wilson says: 'Lord St John of Fawsley was a great Master of Emmanuel. A leading figure in his generation of politicians, he raised the profile of the College in a remarkable way. He was an outstanding figure who will be much missed.'

Election of a new Master

We are delighted to announce the election of Dame Fiona Reynolds as the next Master of Emmanuel in succession to Lord Wilson of Dinton, who retires on 30 September 2012. Dame Fiona is currently Director-General of the National Trust: see www.nationaltrust.org.uk.

Dame Fiona will take up the Mastership on 1 October 2012. However, she will be granted leave of absence for 2012–13. The Vice-Master, Dr Richard Barnes, will act as Master during that time, and Lord Wilson of Dinton will assist him, especially regarding the College's relations with its Members and supporters.

Another newsletter, another chef competition success story

As sure as the sun rises in the East and sets in the West and Spring follows Winter, a new College Newsletter always brings with it another success story from the College's very talented chefs. Nathan Aldous and Matthew Carter competed at Hotelympia's Salon Culinaire in London's Excel Centre and were both awarded Silver Medals in the Plated Main Course Class. This Salon is an international event, with chefs competing from all over the world.

They also sang Mass at the Basilica di Santa Maria Maggiore and Eucharist at All Saints' Anglican church.
