

Cambridge Seminar Series in 19th Century French Studies: 2018-2019

All are welcome to this platform for a range of researchers in the field, from Cambridge and elsewhere, which meets in the Thomas Young Room, Front Court, Emmanuel College.

Convenor: Prof. Nick White (njw16@cam.ac.uk). We meet from 5.15 on Mondays (papers starting at 5.30). Wine and other refreshments are served.

Michaelmas Term 2018:

- 8 Oct Juliette Atkinson (University College London)
French Novels and the Victorians
- 5 Nov Michèle Hannoosh (University of Michigan)
Jules Michelet: The Writing of Art and the Writing of History in Nineteenth-Century France
- 26 Nov Martine Reid (Lille 3)
Quelques réflexions sur une autre histoire (Femmes et littérature. Une histoire culturelle)

Lent Term 2019:

- 21 Jan Alan Baker (Emmanuel College, Cambridge)
Bibliothèques populaires in provincial France 1860-1900
- 11 Feb Véronique Samson (Emmanuel College, Cambridge)
Time and Politics around Le Salut public
- 25 Feb Marie-Astrid Charlier (Université Paul-Valéry Montpellier 3 / RIRRA 21)
Le Roman et les Jour : Poétiques de la quotidienneté au XIXe siècle
- 11 March Corry Cropper (Brigham Young University)
Marianne Meets the Mormons: Mormonism in the French Imaginary 1830-1914

Easter Term 2019:

- 29 April Helen Craske (Merton College, Oxford)
Complicity in Fin-de-Siècle Literature
- 20 May T.J. Clark (University of California, Berkeley)
What Hegel Would Have Said About Monet
- 3 June Thomas W. Dodman (Columbia University)
What Nostalgia Was: War, Empire, and the Time of a Deadly Emotion
- 10 June Colin Foss (Austin College, Texas)
Literature under Siege, Paris 1870-1871